

Acknowledging Funding from Canadian Frailty Network

Guidelines for Researchers & Trainees

On an ongoing basis, research and knowledge translation projects, and Fellows and Summer Students and their supervisors funded by Canadian Frailty Network (formerly TVN) should acknowledge this financial support in all electronic, print and verbal communications concerning the project. This includes brochures, posters, websites, surveys, journal submissions, conference papers, and other presentations.

Preferred Method of Acknowledgement

The preferred method of acknowledgement includes the Network logo, as well as text relating to funding:

This research is funded by Canadian Frailty Network (Technology Evaluation in the Elderly Network), which is supported by the Government of Canada through the Networks of Centres of Excellence (NCE) program.

If space is limited

If space is limited, a text-only mention is acceptable:

This research is funded by Canadian Frailty Network (Technology Evaluation in the Elderly Network), which is supported by the Government of Canada through the Networks of Centres of Excellence (NCE) program.

Text references to Canadian Frailty Network

When you refer to the Network in the text of a document, the first mention in copy should be "Canadian Frailty Network." Subsequent mentions in the same document can be "CFN."

Overall guidelines when using the Network logo
